Making sure there's a reason,
Making sure there's a way,
There is always someone here
To brighten up my day.

She is no one important
No one special at all
Just a small little hero
Who's only twelve inches tall.

She doesn't really understand,
Being only seven months old,
She won't come when I call her,
Rarely doing what she's told.

Sometimes she can be wild
And all she will do is yap,
But I can still say, "I love her,"
Because she's my Gingersnap.
